

Mary Gauthier performs at The Arlington

By Jim Eadie

Noted American troubadour and songwriter Mary Gauthier played to a full house at the Arlington Hotel in Maynooth on Jun 12, and clearly inspired the audience of loyal Canadian fans that came out to see her. Playing songs from her new recording 'Trouble and Love', she also showed her storytelling side much to the appreciation of her audience.

Facebook postings after the show told the tale: 'That was fantastic!' 'An incredible night .. with a whole group sing along .. wonderful experience.' 'My first Mary Gauthier performance! I loved it!' The following day parts of the show had already been posted on YouTube.

The evenings program was opened by local 'old timey' southern style blues singer and songwriter Donna Leclair and her band.
